

Happy October Everyone!

We made it through another Stampin' Up! year...and successful one at that for me...THANK YOU! Thank you to all my customers and team for helping me reach the goals I set out this past year....it is yet to be determined if all the hard work accomplished my number 1 of being in the top 100 of 56,000 demonstrators worldwide. I will find that out the second week of November and you will all be the first to hear if I do. It came down to all the last orders I got last night at class....but we did it. 😊

Keep reading to find out who some recent winners are, different campaigns I have, the Christmastime is Here Suite, September's Paper Pumpkin kit, my upcoming classes, and more.

Congratulations to Rhonda, Alexa, and Pat for winning the Catalog Launch Party drawings! Congratulations to Tammy for winning the So Many Stars bundle at half for a Facebook video drawing I did last week....yay!! Lori R was the winner of the September Newsletter drawing. The last prize of the month was won by Judy Immel for the Like, Comment, Share FB campaign I did during September. She will get to pick from almost everything in the catalog and get it at half off (excludes suites and paper pumpkin subscriptions). We picked some runner up winners and those lucky ladies are Elaine Rebek and Michelle Heim.

Bring a Friend Campaign Set For October

I love it when you bring your new-to-me friends to stamp with you at class and I bet it's fun having a friend to stamp with. During the month of October, I'm promoting stamping with friends. In addition to the three cards each of you can pick out of my basket, each of you will receive a marker or ink spot from my basket. In addition, every customer and their friend will have their names entered in a live drawing to win a half off item. Start thinking about who you've been wanting to bring along and check with them to see if they will join us...share a class schedule with them. And to top it off, for every new to me friend you bring along, your name will go into a drawing for a half off item....have you been eyeing up a new bundle in the Holiday Catalog? Wouldn't it be great to get it for half off?

Like, Comment, Share on Facebook Campaign Starting Now

My cousin Kelly is doing a great job helping me with my social media and marketing campaign on Facebook....wouldn't you agree?! She has been helping me manage both of my Facebook groups, one is the business page that anyone can like and follow, and the other is my private VIP page which is for customers who have purchased or attended classes within the last 6 months. You may not know the difference between the two when you see notifications, but they are different, and you will start to notice that as she helps me more. You will start to see more regular posts on my business Facebook page and different days will feature different topics. Did you notice Make It Monday, Tip Tuesday, Product Share Wednesday, Technique Thursday, Feel Good Friday? Are you learning and seeing new things to inspire yourself? We sure hope so!

She had a fabulous idea to build engagement and that is where you are helping and being rewarded. She's monitored all the likes, comments, and shares throughout the month and she randomly selected some winners. Congratulations to Judy Immel for winning the half off item. The runner up winners are Elaine Rebek and Michelle Heim....yay!!!

We really appreciate you helping with this campaign! We'll continue this in October with more people winning at the end of next month. Keep liking, commenting, and sharing!

Looking for hostesses in October and November

Tis the season to gather some friends together and make some cards. They can be for any occasion and with the holidays upon us wouldn't it be fun to make some themed cards? We can run your party like a class or like a workshop....either way with $150 in sales you'll start to earn hostess credit. I'll do a drawing for a half off item for any new class or workshop that is booked in September and held by November 30th. Contact me today to set a date and start planning it. Don't worry about having to clean up your house....invite people over to my studio instead. It's a win-win for you! Another option is to have a Facebook Virtual Party....I just did one for a friend who does Pampered Chef and I ended up with over $1,000 in orders. Wouldn't you love to earn some FREE stuff?!? I already had Linda and Julie book workshops and they have their names in the drawing...yay!

The New Paper Trimmer

Papercrafting begins with a beautiful first cut, which means having the right tool for the job is kind of a big deal. Well, does SU have the tool for you! You will be able to get your hands on the new Paper Trimmer by Stampin' Up! soon.

They want to ensure they have a sufficient inventory of Paper Trimmers for you and will not announce a customer release date until they are able to gauge the new product's inventory levels and popularity during the demonstrator preorder period, which started October 1st. They will update us as soon as there is a customer release date.

Demonstrators can order one trimmer and a pack of blades on a demonstrator order now. Check the Happening section in the demo website to get the item numbers.
